We can go ahead and make that change to the expected votes next week.

So officially:

E-Vote on CCB-127

Tuesday (10/27):

Posted to the CCB wiki, but sent out here to ensure it reaches folks in a timely-ish fashion:

CCB-135 should not be a consent item. The description says

"updates ... have been so extensive that readers should consider this a new document"

CCB members should be given ample time (i.e., more than 2.5 business days) to review the document and make comments.

Geo requests that this item require an e-Vote to be held not earlier than Oct 27.

Subject: PDS CCB E-Vote Announcement for Tuesday, 20 Oct 2015, Noon MDT

Hi CCB and Interested Parties,

We have two items up for consideration next week. All voting members should have their votes to me by Tuesday Noon MDT. I'd like to see an E-vote on CCB-127 and CCB-135 is document clean-up and should be a Consent item.

Thanks again for your continued interest!
-Lynn
